

Number of Respondents: 6

Results for: M9 Dialogue & Organization-Based Spread Techniques

Please rate your overall satisfaction with this event.

Number of responses: 6

Percent MAS = 80.00%

After attending this session, please rate your ability to: Describe five organizational /dialogue based methodologies for knowledge transfer

Number of responses: 6

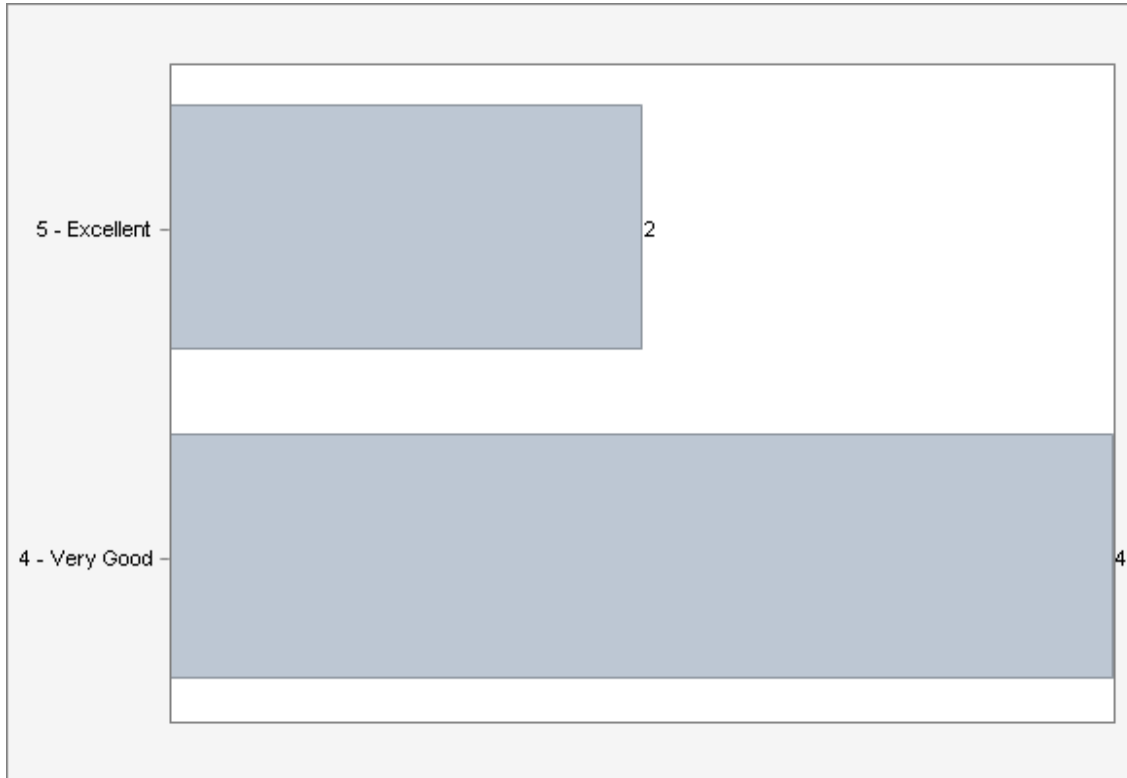

Percent MAS = 90.00%

After attending this session, please rate your ability to: Apply one or more organizational diagnostic frameworks to assess readiness for spread

Number of responses: 6

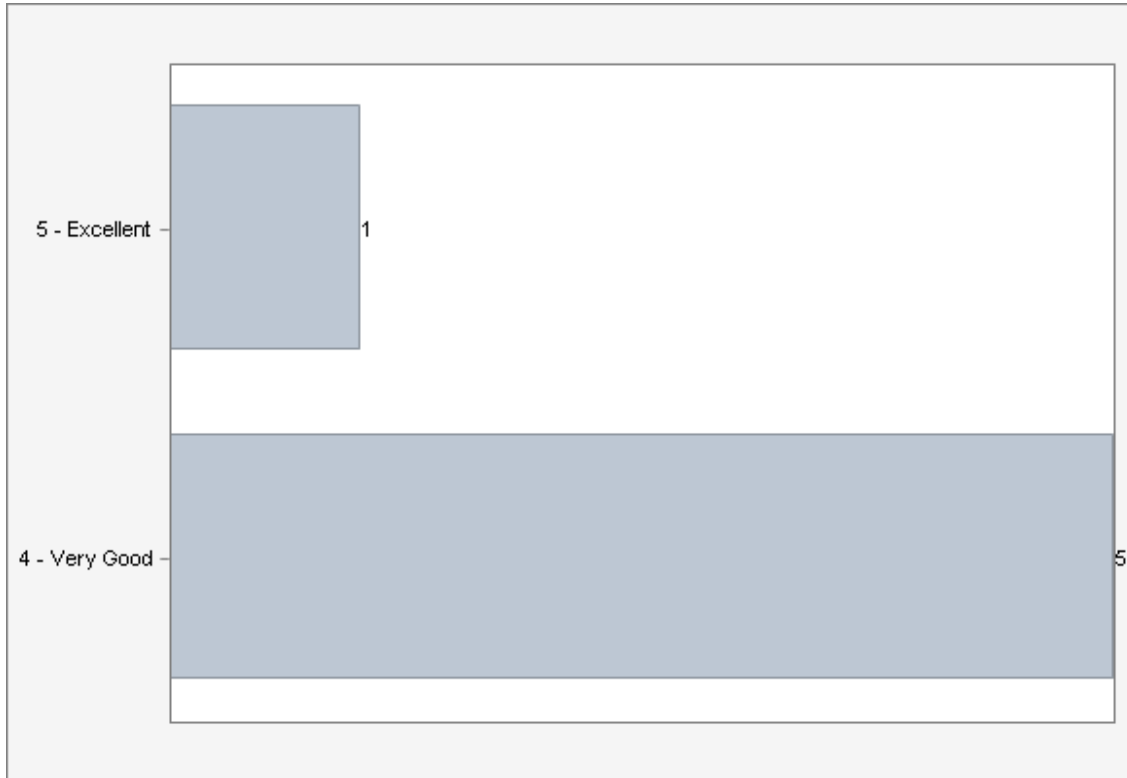

Percent MAS = 86.67%

After attending this session, please rate your ability to: Explain the relevance, advantages and difficulties of social networks and networking

Number of responses: 6

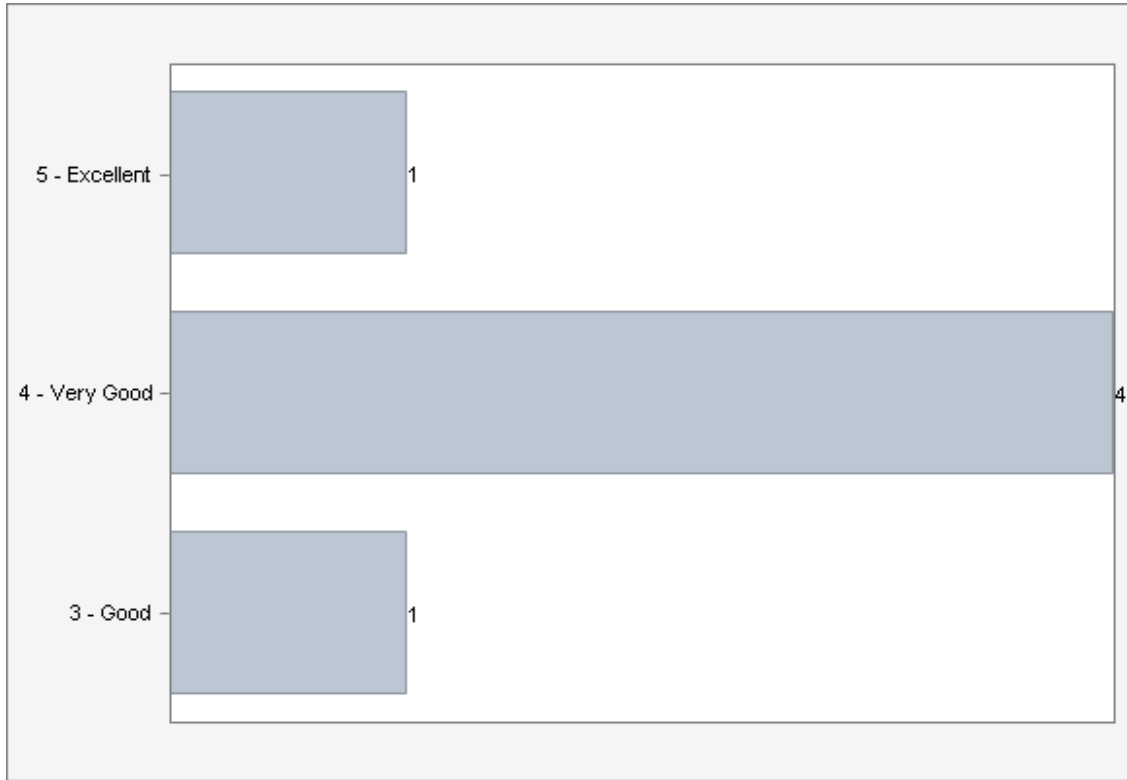

Percent MAS = 83.33%

After attending this session, please rate your ability to: Create organization-wide measurement monitoring plan to assess depth and breadth of spread

Number of responses: 6

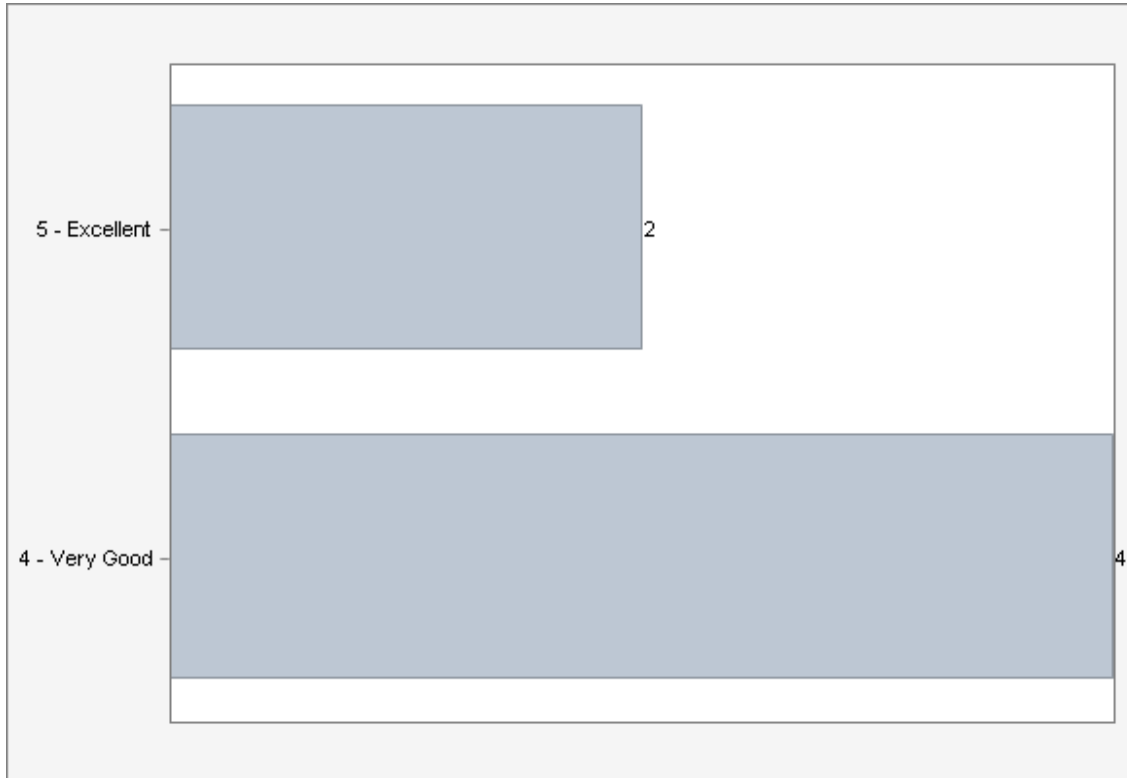

Percent MAS = 80.00%

After attending this session, please rate your ability to: List the top five reasons why good practice doesn't spread, the better to avoid them

Number of responses: 6

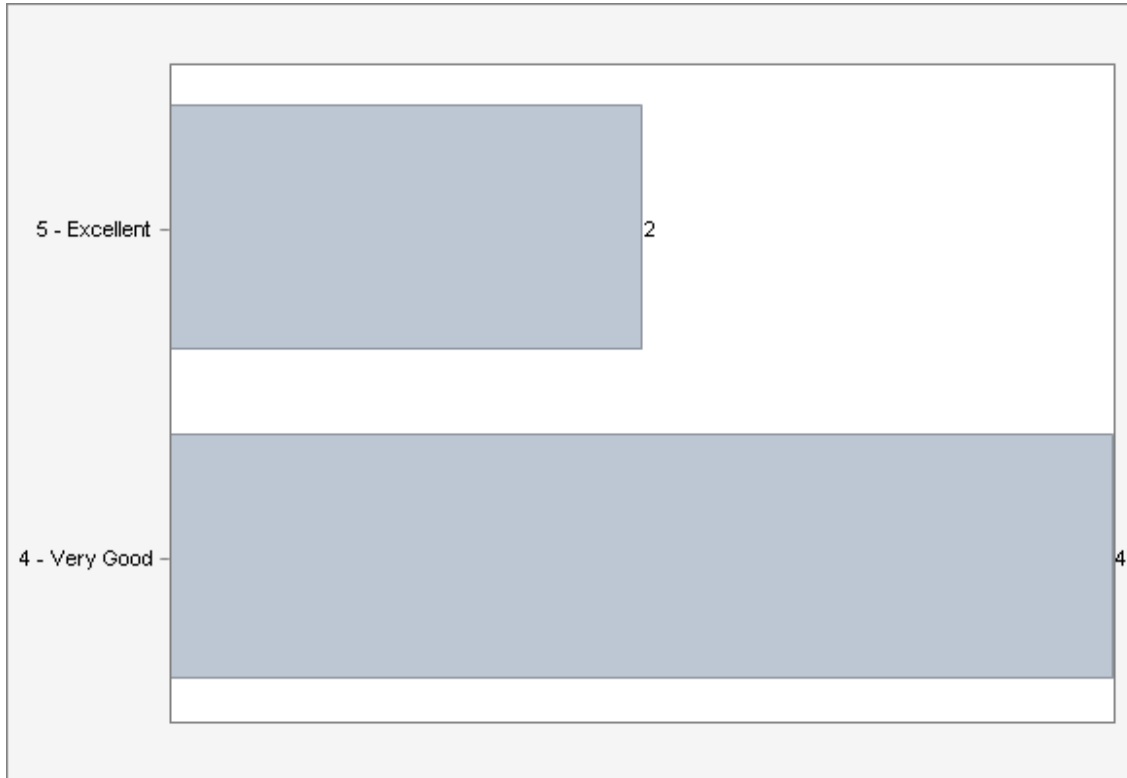

Percent MAS = 86.67%

Please rate the effectiveness of the teaching strategies utilized during this session.

Number of responses: 6

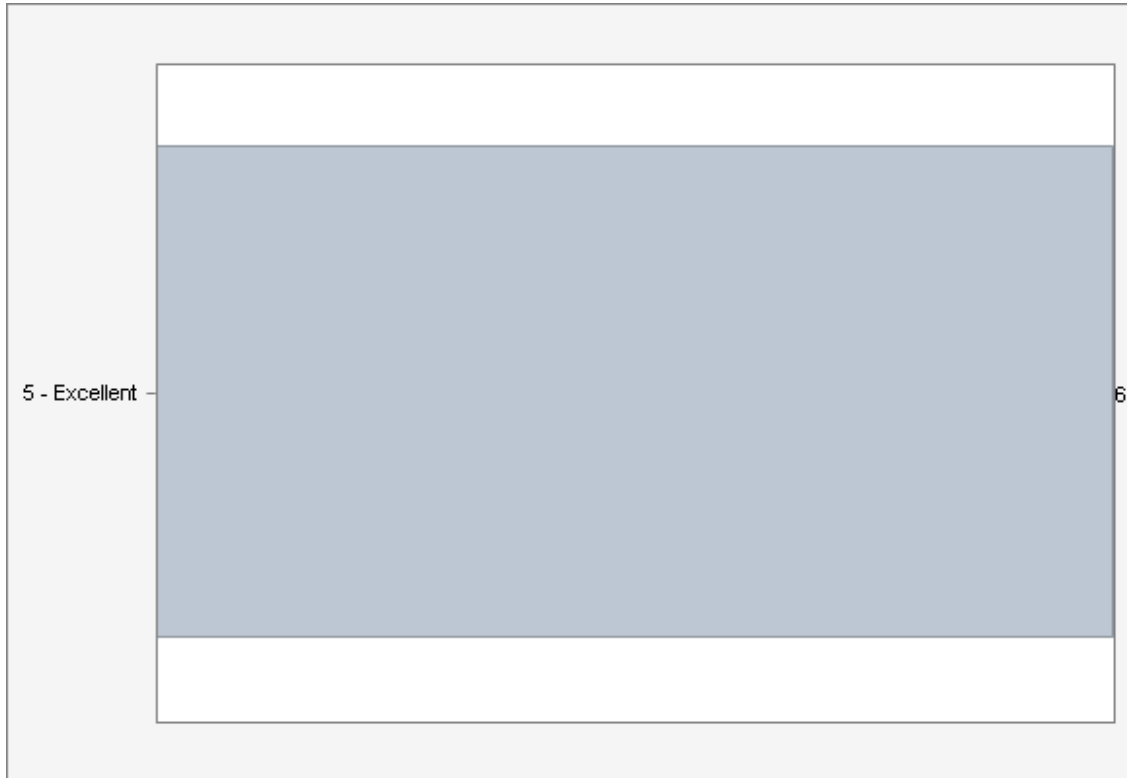

Percent MAS = 72.22%

Please rate the faculty for this program: Sarah W. Fraser, PhD: Faculty, Credentials Content Knowledge

Number of responses: 6

Percent MAS = 100.00%

Please rate the faculty for this program: Sarah W. Fraser, PhD: Faculty, Credentials Teaching Effectiveness

Number of responses: 6

Percent MAS = 93.33%

